Unless otherwise indicated, capitalised terms used herein have the same meanings as those defined in the circular of the Company dated 7 December 2012 (the “Circular”):

AS SPECIAL RESOLUTION

To consider and, if thought fit, approve the following resolution as a special resolution:

1. “THAT the following amendments to the Articles of Association be and are hereby approved;

Article 258

Original: “The financial statements of the Company shall, in addition to being prepared in accordance with the PRC accounting standards and regulations, be prepared in accordance with either international accounting standards, or that of the place outside the PRC where the Company’s shares are listed. If there is any material difference between the financial statements prepared respectively in accordance with the two accounting standards, such difference shall be stated in the financial statements. When the Company is to distribute its after-tax profits, the lower of the after-tax profits as shown in the two financial statements shall be adopted.”

To be amended as: “The financial statements of the Company shall, in addition to being prepared in accordance with the PRC accounting standards and regulations, be prepared in accordance with either international accounting standards, or that of the place outside the PRC where the Company’s shares are listed. If there is any material difference between the financial statements prepared respectively in accordance with the two accounting standards, such difference shall be stated in the financial statements. When the Company is to distribute its after-tax profits, the lower of the after-tax profits as shown in the two financial statements shall be adopted. According to the relevant laws and regulations, profit distribution by the Company shall be based on the distributable profit of its parent company (non-consolidated statements).”

Article 267

Original: “The Company may distribute dividends in the following manners: (1) cash; (2) shares.”

To be amended as: “(I) Procedures for decision-making on profit distribution by the Company: After the end of each accounting year, the board of directors shall propose a profit distribution plan and the independent directors shall express their independent opinions thereon. After which the profit distribution plan shall be proposed to the general meeting for voting. Implementation of the profit distribution plan shall be subject to completion of administrative and approval procedures (if required).

(II) If the Company records a profit for the reporting period and the balance of unallocated profit is positive but no cash dividends plan has been proposed, the Company shall provide an internet voting platform for shareholders.

(III) The supervisory committee of the Company shall monitor the execution of profit distribution policy and the planning and decision-making procedures for shareholder return carried out by the board of directors and the management. In formulating the profit distribution policy of the Company, the opinions and requests of the shareholders, especially those of the minority shareholders, shall be extensively consulted, and the concerns of minority shareholders shall be addressed in a timely manner.

(IV) The Company shall disclose in details its formulation and implementation of cash dividends policy in its regular published reports; should there be any adjustment or change to the cash dividends policy, detailed descriptions shall be provided on the regulatory compliance regarding the conditions and procedures for such adjustment or change. If the Company records a profit for the year and the balance of unallocated profit is positive but no cash dividends plan has been proposed, the Company shall, in its annual report, describe in details the reason for not proposing a cash dividends, as well as the purpose and usage plan for cash retained in the Company that is not distributed as cash dividends.

(V) In the event that the profit distribution policy needs to be adjusted by reason of promulgation of new requirements on the profit distribution policy of listed companies by PRC laws and regulations and securities regulatory authorities, or due to significant changes of external operating environment or operating condition of the Company, for the purpose of protecting the interests of the shareholders, the directors of the Company shall carefully examine and describe the reasons for such adjustment and strictly follow the decision-making procedures. In the event of amendments to the profit distribution policy of the Company, the board of directors shall consider the revised plan and the independent directors shall express their independent opinions thereon. Such amendments shall be disclosed to the public upon consideration and approval at the general meeting by more than two-thirds of the shareholders present at the meeting.”

Article 268

Original: “For distribution of dividend by way of cash, the accumulated payment of dividend by way of cash for the last three years may not be less than 30% of the Company’s average distributable profit for the last three years.

Where the Company made a payment of dividend satisfied by an allotment of new shares or completed conversion of capital common reserve fund into capital, the Company may elect not to distribute dividend by way of cash in the same year, and that year is not counted in the three years stated earlier in this Article.”

To be amended as: “The Company adopts the following profit distribution policy:

(I) Principles of profit distribution by the Company: Provided that the long-term and sustainable development of the Company are ensured, the profit distribution policy of the Company should pay close attention to ensuring a reasonable return of investment to investors and establishing a firm intention of rewarding the shareholders, and such profit distribution policy should maintain its continuity and stability.

(II) Ways of profit distribution by the Company: The Company may distribute dividends by way of cash, a combination of cash and shares or in other reasonable manners in compliance with laws and regulations.

(III) Conditions and proportion of distribution of cash dividends by the Company: Conditional upon the Company being profitable for the year and after allocation to the statutory common reserve fund and discretionary common reserve fund as required, and there are no exceptional matters including material investment plans or material cash outflows (material investment plans or material cash outflows refer to proposed external investments, acquisition of assets or purchase of equipment in the coming 12 months that in aggregate constitute expenditure exceeding 30% of the net assets of the Company as shown in the latest audited consolidated statements) and there has not incurred any material losses (losses in the amount exceeding 10% of the net assets of the Company as shown in the latest audited consolidated statements), the Company shall distribute cash dividends out of profit in an amount not less than 10% of the distributable profit for the year (i.e. profit realized for the year after making up for losses and allocation to reserve fund). The accumulated payment of dividend by way of cash for the last three years may not be less than 30% of the Company’s average distributable profit for the last three years. The accumulated payment of dividend by way of cash for the coming three years may not be less than 30% of the Company’s average distributable profit for such three years.

(IV) Intervals for profit distribution by the Company: Provided that the conditions of profit distribution are met and the Company’s normal operation and sustainable development are ensured, the Company shall in principle distribute profit on an annual basis, and interim profit may also be distributed based on the profitability and capital requirement conditions of the Company.

(V) Conditions of profit distribution by way of share dividends: Provided that the minimum proportion of distribution of cash dividends is met and reasonable scale of share capital and shareholding structure of the Company are ensured, and with particular attention paid on keeping the steps of capital expansion in pace with the growth in operation results, if there are special circumstances which prevent distribution by way of cash, the Company may consider distributing profit by way of share dividends as a return to investors after consideration of its profitability and cash flow position and performance of the procedures required by the Articles. Where the Company made a payment of dividend satisfied by an allotment of new shares or completed conversion of capital common reserve fund into capital, the Company may elect not to distribute dividend by way of cash in the same year, and that year is not counted in the three years as stated above in this Article.”
